POTTERS SINCE 1945

high fired durable porcelain

High fired porcelain is extremely durable and is used day-to-day throughout some of the busiest hospitality venues. This product is used for McDonald's Australia, Grill'd Hamburgers and the majority of our retail offerings. It is vigorously tested to ensure it will withstand the most demanding commercial kitchens. Robert Gordon's offshore factory works directly with the mold shop in Australia - producing on-trend shapes and brilliant colors.

Ask any chef in Melbourne and they will tell you that food looks better on a Robert Gordon plate. High quality, top design and the ability to custom create allows Robert Gordon to excel within the industry.

GAVIN KAYSEN EXECUTIVE CHEF AND OWNER

Spoon and Stable

Robert Gordon was thrilled to supply one of the world's best restaurants with our Australian made ceramics. Spoon and Stable in Minneapolis, USA, is based in what was once a horse stable, dating back to 1906. It's the dream of award winning chef and owner, Gavin Kaysen. The cuisine focuses on the seasonality of the Midwest, the roots of the local culture and inspired by the French cuisine Kaysen is famous for.

'I have worked in kitchens for over 20 years, my plates are my canvas. I only buy the best, and by that I mean quality and design. With Robert Gordon plates you get both, they are strong and they withstand the demand of my restaurant all while maintaining a beauty and care for design. I used them once and have never looked back.'

'I have used Robert Gordon crockery for the majority of my career in multiple kitchens and homes and continue to seek inspiration for my menus through their family's passion for the industry along with the colours and textures of their evolving range.'
